

the authors introduce partial filter posterior estimation for non-parametric Bayesian matrix factorization models based on the IBP. This technique is applicable to any Bayesian matrix factorization model with spares recursively decomposable prior. The authors apply to two different models, with conjugate and non conjugate prior that are both faster than gibbs sampling.